Description

Need a powerful and dependable tipper with serious capability? This 2017 Iveco Stralis AT 500 Series 2 delivers the performance and setup to handle demanding workloads with ease — sold as traded. Equipped with a durable Hardox tipper body, this truck is built to handle tough materials day in and day out. The two-way tailgate and electric tarp system add convenience and efficiency when loading and unloading, making it a practical choice for a wide range of applications. Under the hood, the Stralis is known for its strong performance and long-haul capability, supported by a large 600L diesel tank to keep you moving longer between fills. It also features rear hydraulics and a ring feeder, adding versatility for towing and additional equipment. Inside the cab, comfort and functionality come together with ISRI driver and passenger seats, air conditioning, cruise control, Bluetooth radio, and hands-free controls. The sleeper cab, sunvisor, and well-designed layout make longer days on the road more manageable. Additional features include: Battery isolator Diff and cross locks for improved traction GME UHF radio Alloy bumper bar A well-equipped and capable tipper offering strong value — sold as traded.
